Step into the captivating world of Charleston Daughter: The Low Country, a novel that transports readers to the antebellum South. Immerse yourself in the vibrant and complex society of Charleston, South Carolina, as you follow the journey of a young woman named Sarah as she navigates the challenges of love, family, and her own identity.

Sarah is a young woman from a wealthy plantation family. She is beautiful, intelligent, and well-educated. However, she is also headstrong and independent, which does not always sit well with her family or the society in which she lives.

When Sarah meets a young man named John, she falls head over heels in love. However, John is not from a wealthy family, and Sarah's family disapproves of their relationship. Sarah must decide whether to follow her heart or to conform to the expectations of her family and society.

Set against the backdrop of the Civil War, Charleston Daughter is a story of love, loss, and redemption. It is a story that will stay with readers long after they finish reading it.
