

Good Little Girls: The Keepers - An Unsettling True Crime that Haunts

A Haunting Story of Innocence Lost

In the quaint town of Springfield, Missouri, where secrets whisper through the wind, a tragedy occurred that would forever leave an indelible mark on the community. On a fateful evening in June 1992, three young girls vanished without a trace, their laughter echoing through the empty streets as if swallowed by the night.

Suzie Streeter, Stacy McCall, and Sherrill Levitt, known as the "Springfield Three," were inseparable friends, their lives filled with promise and dreams. But that fateful night, they embarked on an errand that would change everything forever. As darkness enveloped the town, the girls disappeared, leaving behind a trail of broken hearts and unanswered questions.
