The book follows the lives of four homeless veterans:

- John, a former Marine who struggles with PTSD and addiction
- Mary, a former Army medic who is now homeless with her two young children
- Tom, a former Air Force pilot who lost his job and his home after the 9/11 attacks

- Lisa, a former Navy sailor who is now homeless after being discharged from the military due to her sexual orientation

Despite their own struggles, these four veterans find a way to give back to their community. They volunteer at a local soup kitchen, a homeless shelter, and a veterans' hospital. Through their volunteer work, they find a sense of purpose and belonging. They also help to break down the stereotypes that people have about homeless veterans.

Homeless Vet Volunteers is a story of hope and inspiration. It shows that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. The book is also a reminder of the importance of giving back to our communities. We all have something to offer, and we can all make a difference in the lives of others.
