Volume I: The Beginning - A Journey to the Roots of Creation

Volume I of "Chinese Myths: An Illustrated Collection" embarks on an exploration of the very beginnings of the Chinese cosmos. It takes us back to the primordial chaos from which the universe emerged, guided by the enigmatic figure of Pangu, the creator god. We witness the separation of heaven and earth, the birth of the sun, moon, and stars, and the emergence of the first humans.

As we journey through this volume, we encounter a cast of legendary heroes who played pivotal roles in shaping Chinese civilization. There is Nuwa, the goddess who molded humans from clay, and Fuxi, her brother and consort, who taught mankind the arts of writing and music. We learn of the exploits of the Yellow Emperor, a mythical ruler who unified the warring tribes of China, and the legendary archer Hou Yi, who shot down nine suns that threatened to scorch the earth.

Each tale is meticulously crafted to transport readers to the heart of ancient China, immersing them in the vibrant tapestry of its mythology. The evocative language and stunning artwork combine to create an unforgettable reading experience that will leave you captivated from beginning to end.
