Becoming a mom was never part of my plan.

I was a career woman, focused on my job and my social life. I loved my freedom and independence. The thought of having children seemed like a distant dream, something that would happen someday, maybe. But then, life threw me a curveball. I got pregnant. And just like that, I was an accidental mother.

I was scared and overwhelmed at first. I had no idea what I was doing. I'd never even changed a diaper before! But I quickly learned that motherhood is a crash course in life lessons. I learned how to be patient, how to be selfless, and how to love unconditionally.

It wasn't always easy. There were sleepless nights, endless diaper changes, and plenty of challenges along the way. But there were also so many moments of joy and laughter. Watching my children grow and learn has been the most rewarding experience of my life.

In Lifesaving Lessons, I share my story and the lessons I've learned along the way. I offer practical advice and relatable stories to help you navigate the challenges and rewards of motherhood.

Whether you're a first-time mom or a seasoned pro, I hope you'll find something in this book to inspire you and help you on your own motherhood journey.

Here are just a few of the lifesaving lessons you'll learn in this book:

- How to find your village of support
- How to cope with the challenges of motherhood

- How to find joy in the everyday moments
- How to raise happy, healthy children
- How to find your own identity as a mother

Lifesaving Lessons is the book every mother needs. It's a lifeline for the challenges, a roadmap for the journey, and a celebration of the incredible power of motherhood.
