

Rhodesian Memories: A Haunting and Unforgettable Journey Through a Lost World

In his latest book, Rhodesian Memories, acclaimed author Paul Auster takes readers on a poignant and unforgettable journey through the forgotten history of Rhodesia. Through evocative prose and stunning photography, Auster captures the beauty, tragedy, and resilience of a lost world.

Rhodesia, now known as Zimbabwe, was a British colony from 1890 to 1965. It was a land of stunning beauty, with vast savannas, towering mountains, and crystal-clear lakes. But Rhodesia was also a land of deep divisions, between the white settlers and the black majority. In 1965, Rhodesia unilaterally declared independence from Britain, and a bloody civil war ensued.
